

2.) Invaders (8.1)

Angels from the sea
Bringers of salvation
Despair, hate and blood

Books of unknown words
Light that never comes
Fire hides in blessings
Smoke fills the air

Sharp are the stones we cast
Thick is the blood that pours
To our gods we pray for mercy
To us they send us none

Flashes of flame we see
Screams of pain surround us
Flesh torn and fallen souls
Salvation will not come

Their words have no meaning
Their laws have no place here
We won't bow to them
To them we won't belong

We meet them in our land
Fight until we can no more
A war that shouldn't be
A price they'll never pay

Sharp are the stones we cast
Thick is the blood that pours
To our gods we pray for mercy
To us they send us none

Flashes of flame we see
Screams of pain surround us
Flesh torn and fallen souls
Salvation will not come

Their steel will conquer our stone
Their fire will burn through our soul
Our gold they'll feed to their greed
Our women they'll take for their need

We fight for our lands and our gods
We fight to honor our past
They preach of heaven and hell
Repent for your sins as you die

2.) Invaders (8.2)

We kill and we die, we kill and we die
We paint our faces, hear our battlecry
We kill and we die, we kill and we die
We paint our faces, hear our battlecry

We kill and we die, we kill and we die
We paint our faces, hear our battlecry
We kill and we die, we kill and we die
We paint our faces, hear our battlecry

Our hearts will forever live on
Our blood will soak all the land
Memories of holy betrayal
The pain of those torned by lies

From the skies our arrows rain
To pierce invaders' flesh
Their fear they can't contain
Our pride we'll not forget

Devils that come from the blue
To take what is our own
To set our homes ablaze
In the name of your false god

From the skies our arrows rain
To pierce invaders' flesh
Their fear they can't contain
Our pride we'll not forget

We kill and we die, we kill and we die
Blood in the sky, take our life
We kill and we die, we kill and we die
Cry to the sky, take our life
We kill and we die, we kill and we die
Cry to the sky, take our life
We kill and we die, we kill and we die
Cry to the sky, set our spirits

Free! Free!

We kill and we die, we kill and we die
Cry to the sky, take our llives
Set our spirits free!
We kill and we die, we kill and we die
We kill and we die, we kill and we die
