

3.) Treacherous (8.1)

I stepped into this land
Pagan and unholy
I killed on command
For they are the enemy

It ripped through my skin
Death from above
I felt the end begin
Heart's beating slow

The light becomes brighter
But the shadow grows
Blood pours out of me
Time begins to slow

I breathe my last breath
It's my time to die
You stole my last breath
My end is nigh

What awaits my soul?
What waits for me?
Free me from doubt
Free me from sin

I've lived my life
I gave you all
Now I see nothing
As I stand to fall

What awaits my soul?
What waits for me?
Feed me my doubt
Feed me my sin

They took my life
They took it all
You give me nothing
You let me fall

I see no angels
Only darkness
Evil faces
Body's heartless

3.) Treacherous (S.2)

I've been wronged
You have lied
Hate grows strong
Devotion's died

Gauge my eyes
Since day one
To hide the lies
Behind the sun

Face to face
With my false sin
To find a truth
Always within

Save me father
I'm not finished
Take another
Save my spirit

I fear no weapon
Have no mercy
I'll take your blessing
Leave them bloody

Save me father
I'm not finished
Take another
Save my spirit

I fear no weapon
Have no mercy
I'll take your blessing
Leave them bloody

The void
Becomes my flesh
In a land
Made of bone

Eternity's
Cold caress
In a heart
Turned to stone

3.) Treacherous (S.3)

To never see
The day
To never hear
No voice again

Time lost
To prayer
To keep the world
In pain

I see no angels
Only darkness
Evil faces
Body's heartless

I've been wronged
You have lied
Hate grows strong
Devotion's died

Gauge my eyes
Since day one
To hide the lies
Behind the sun

You have lied
You have lied
You have lied
You have lied
